Birthday Parties Booking Form 2011

How To Book a Party

We recommend that you book your party as early as possible to guarantee the date and activity you require. Some parties may also depend on the availability of external instructors so time should be allowed for us to make contact with them.

Fill out all the details required on the form and hand it into Reception or post it to the Club. We cannot discuss parties without a completed form. Please include a second date and

What happens next?

We will check the availability of instructors, room hire and catering and then confirm the booking to you in writing. This can take up to 7 days. Please do not send out your party invitations until we have confirmed your booking to you in writing.

You will then receive a phone call approximately one week before the party to confirm all your party details. Details must be re-confirmed by the Wednesday prior to the party date.

Payments

A £50.00 deposit is required to confirm your booking once you have received our letter. Full payment for the activity element of the party, including extras and food must be paid for up to 7 days in advance of the party.

Please ensure to read the Terms & Conditions regarding cancellations and the charges applied on the reverse of this form.
